Stettin

1. A billeting area with temporary barracks, on Czaikowskiego Street, was occupied by Soviet troops on 29 June 1950. The sentry at the main gate wore red epaulets. Troops seen in the billeting area wore red-bordered black epaulets. *
2. A fuel depot of the Zentralna Produktja Naftowa (ZPN) was east of the billeting area. Ten to twelve large containers were observed in the depot area. A signboard reading "23 B 12" was on the ZPN administration building at the eastern edge of the depot. **

Elbing

3. Two battalions of Polish tank troops were stationed in the city of Elbing (Q 55/Y 90), according to a Polish pilot employed at the Elbing airfield in late June 1950. ***

25X1A

* [REDACTED] Comment. The billeting area, which is located south-east of the railroad bridge across the Parnitz River, was also occupied by a Soviet infantry unit in May 1949. See [REDACTED]. The unit is believed to be a supply or guard unit. See Annex for sketch of the billeting area.
